CONFERENCE BYLAWS

Ministers' Records

1. All ministers shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the Conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These churches are listed by Districts.

4. Reports by both Church Secretary and Minister's "shall be mailed in time to arrive at the Conference office by the tenth of each month. All churches shall report on monthly, semi-annual and annual reports to the Conference. Semi-annual reports are due in the Conference office by July 10 and January 10. Annual reports are due in the Conference office by Jan 10.

Pastoral Changes

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on a date determined by the Conference Board preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the MANUAL of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

3. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must be in writing and a copy presented to the Conference Board for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church board makes a request to the Conference Board contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Conference Board. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall be a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of their application for license.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the Committee on Examination that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination or the Conference Board shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine and reputation. Each candidate shall provide a credit report no more than six months old. The personal credit report shall not be distributed to the Committee but shall be reported on to the Committee by the Chairman, the Conference Superintendent.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed courses of studies approved by the General Conference or the equivalent offered by any college approved by the Conference Board.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight clergy members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

Local Church Boards

1. Eligibility for election and tenure of service on the church board will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the official board more than one member of an immediate family in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers offices.

4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions Committee.

Finances--Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, the Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the general program of the Denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of its income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Falcon Children's Home, Education, and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing Superannuation benefits for the year(s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay at least one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. The Conference year shall end December 31; therefore, all tithes of ministers and churches must be paid by January 10th. Monthly written reports from ministers and churches must be sent to the Conference Office by the tenth of the following month.

7. Due to the high cost of living and the need to maintain adequate transportation for the minister, and in view of the consensus that an adequately supported minister can and will do a better job, it becomes mandatory that:

a. In keeping with the General Conference policy concerning housing and utilities, the Conference Board will consider housing and utilities (electricity, fuel, water, telephone) for officials. Each local church shall consider the same for its pastor. These allowances shall be separate and apart from the salaries of ministers and officials.

b. Full-time evangelists shall have the privilege of deducting housing and utilities from their evangelistic compensation. (Full-time means the minister does not customarily resort to non-ministerial employment.)

c. The church shall review the pastor's salary at least annually and grant increases in salary in keeping with diligence, merit, and service of the pastor. Special consideration should be given where growth has resulted from the services and efforts of the pastor.

d. Churches shall pay the pastor's salary during the Annual Conference Session. In order to eliminate confusion regarding the salaries and benefits for the pastors during the week of Conference and to insure that all pastors are paid in the event of Pastoral Change, the church, which the pastor is leaving, will pay his salary and benefits through the final week of Pastoral service mutually agreed upon by the Church Board and Pastor, or in agreement with the Conference Superintendent and if Necessary, the Conference Board.

e. Churches are now required by the Pentecostal Holiness Church MANUAL to pay the pastor's social security tax.

f. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of pastoral support where the need is apparent.

g. Churches are encouraged to pay the insurance premiums for the pastor. The Conference Treasurer shall pay the premiums for the Superintendent. The Christian Education Department shall pay the premiums for the Christian Education Director and the Evangelism Department shall pay the premiums for the Evangelism Director. These stated Departments shall also pay the social security tax for said personnel.

h. In keeping with the General Conference Minutes, the Conference Board shall review and adjust the salary of the Superintendent and other personnel employed by the Conference.

8. Evangelists' Compensation:

a. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the minimum salaries of pastors per week plus travel.

b. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensating evangelists.

c. If a church cancels a revival for a full-time evangelist, without giving at least thirty days' notice, if the Evangelist is unable to fill that time slot in his or her schedule, that church shall pay the evangelist.

9. The rate for official travel shall be the current rate set by the Internal Revenue Service.

10. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses for one move of a retired minister up to the limit set by the Conference Board.

11. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

Vacations

1. The Conference Superintendent shall be given vacation on the same basis as Pastors described in item 2. of this section. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

2. Pastors should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule which is based upon his total years in the pastorate, not just the years at his current pastorate:

One to five years .....two weeks
Six to Fourteen years.....three weeks
Fifteen years and up.....four weeks

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct not more than three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her Department but not less than applies to pastors..

Local Church--Ministerial Relations

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor. Any effort to start a new church must be under the supervision of the Conference Superintendent and the Evangelism Director.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not engage in any activity or conversation that would cause confusion and creates a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor. He/she shall also leave a complete file of minutes of all Church Board Meetings.

Use of Conference Facilities

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of A Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the Office of the Conference Superintendent shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nominating Committee for all Conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the date for the Christian Worker's Institute and select the speakers for the Institute and the Falcon Camp Meeting.

3. The Conference Board and auxiliary Department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

Revision of By-Laws

The Conference Board shall serve as the Standing Committee on Revision of By-Laws. All revisions shall be recommended to the Conference in Session by the Revision Committee. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required to revise the By-Laws.

By motion from Superintendent Long, the Bar of the Conference was set from the center isle of the Camp Meeting Auditorium forward including the rostrum and Choir. MOTION PASSED.

There was a motion to grant seat and voice to visiting ministers. They were recognized: Barry Wood, Stan Kennedy, Jack Edmondson, Bob Ely, Peter Dubbleman. MOTION PASSED.

Superintendent T. E. Long was recognized to give the Report of the Conference Superintendent.

There was a motion to accept his report and to give the Superintendent a rising vote of appreciation. MOTION PASSED.

Secretary/Treasurer Roland Harrell was recognized to give the Report of the Conference Treasurer.

There was a motion to accept his report and to give Secretary-Treasurer Harrell a rising vote of appreciation. MOTION PASSED.

Superintendent Long was recognized to give the Conference Board's response to the Resolutions Report, Page 80 in the 1998 Minutes, Item W, which requested a Ministry Purpose and Goals report regarding the use of the Falcon Campus. The complete report was provided in printed form for all ministers and delegates. Superintendent Long, C. E. M. Director Wheeler, Evangelism Director Thompson, and Secretary-Treasurer Harrell each gave abbreviated verbal reports on facility needs of the Conference.

RDC CAMPUS
NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF I.P.H.C.
Ministry Purpose and Goals

The North Carolina Conference is purposefully committed to teaching and training our constituency in the Worship of God with a goal to maintain a contemporary Witness to each succeeding generation.

This teaching and training must be made as easily accessible to our constituency as possible. This opportunity must be provided our children and youth, local church leadership, missionaries, evangelists and pastors who are preparing for licensing and continual expansion of the continuing education process. These preparation provisions must include our growing Hispanic Ministry as well as other Ethnic Ministry opportunities the Lord will afford us in the next century. In our pursuit of excellence in improving our ministry skills we must develop a School of Ministry on this campus. This would also be a site to consider for an extension campus of one of our church colleges, especially the Graduate School.

The creation of a Conference Library has become a reality with the contribution of approximately 11,000 -12,000 volumes of ministry related material. This valuable contribution has come to us from the family of the late Reverend R. M. Stewart. This collection will be for on premises use only.

We are not in the business of buildings, but ministry. Adequate housing and classroom facilities must be maintained to accommodate these ministries. However, we must be frugal by keeping the number of buildings to be maintained at minimum cost of adequate upkeep. The largest groups to be accommodated will perhaps continue to be our summer youth camps, with other groups ranging in size from conference boards, men's ministries, women's ministries, and local church leadership groups, etc. In addition, the buildings can be used for ministers and spouses in crisis, sabbatical, or for study in the library.

The conference has given the conference board the responsibility of replacing or refurbishing campus buildings as necessary.
We are at a point that we cannot use the big beige dormitory after this year due to determination by county officials.
The conference board believes the most rational procedure at this point is to refurbish the school building dormitory. This, in addition to some alterations to the two parsonages on campus will provide adequate housing and classroom facilities at the present. We will plan to develop additional housing as the needs are forecast and funds become available.
Funds must be raised from our constituency to accomplish this task. We need at least $300,000 dollars to be giving immediately or pledged to be given over the next 12 months to refurbish the school building dorm.
I present to this conference session the following leaders to emphasize the urgency of the need and to enlist the total support of our people.

David Wheeler, Christian Education Ministries
Chris Thompson, Evangelism & Mission Director
Roland Harrell, Stewardship Officer

There was a motion to approve the report and to receive an offering for the restoration of the School Dorm. MOTION PASSED.

An offering was received and pledges made in the amount of $40,229.54. Many others promised to respond.

The Conference adjourned to the School Dorm site and following the pattern directed in Zechariah 4:7 marched around the building proclaiming, "GRACE! GRACE!" in act of faith that the necessary funds will be raised to complete the renovation project.

The Conference reconvened at 2:00 P.M. with the singing of the song, "Oh, How I Love Jesus."

Rev. Chris Thompson was recognized to present the Memoirs Committee report. The Conference stood in silent prayer and fond memory of those who were promoted both from our Conference Roster and from the Campmeeting Association Roster. Prayer was led by Superintendent Long.

Rev. Roland Harrell was recognized to present the Appreciation Report.

Superintendent Long was recognized to present the Report of the Examining Committee. There was a motion to accept the report. MOTION PASSED.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

I praise God for another opportunity to report to this Conference on my ministerial activities for the year 1999. It is a distinct pleasure and joy to serve our Lord and to serve His church in the capacity to which you have assigned me.

I am eternally grateful to the Lord for giving me an understanding wife and family. I sincerely appreciate their prayerful support, along with that of all of you. The clergymen and congregations of this Conference are among my most cherished possessions; possessions in that I see you as treasured gifts from God.

Of course, my favorite ministry activity is still the preaching and teaching of the entire word of God. I praise the Lord for putting me in the ministry. I can honestly say that there has never been a day when I regret being called of God to serve as a preacher of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I have not always been what I consider "a good minister of Jesus Christ" but I have certainly wanted to be. I thank you for the privilege of preaching and teaching in the churches of this Conference again over this past reporting period. I have chaired the meetings of the Conference Board, Church Education Board, Evangelism Board and Missions Committee, in addition to serving as Chairman of the Falcon Children's Home Board. I have attended the Zone Superintendents Meetings, conducted by our Bishop, and have served with diligence on the General Board of Administration of this denomination. I also serve as a member of the World Missions Ministries Board and the Emanuel College Board. I led the worship and management activities at the Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings, the Christian Workers Institute and shared with the Assistant Superintendent the District Conference Sessions. In these endeavors of oversight I have been assisted by a very competent and committed Conference Board.

Mrs. Linda Thomas continues to lead the women of this Conference as the Women's Ministries Director. She and the board who serve with her, along with all the district and local leadership personnel, are of inestimable value to the Body of Christ.

Mrs. Sandra Britt is the energetic leader of the Girls Ministries. She and those who serve with her do so in a commendable fashion. This group of dedicated ladies are making a definite impact for Christ as they minister to and through the girls of this Conference.

Brother Chris Thompson, Assistant Superintendent, is a committed servant of the Lord Jesus Christ, and serves this church with an unswerving dedication. He continues to lead the way as he and the District Directors and District Unit Personnel conduct the Evangelism business of this Conference. He also is the inspiring and energetic leader of the World Missions Ministries' endeavors among us. He has certainly led the way in putting us over the top to become the largest financial supporter of the World Missions Ministries of this denomination for several years in succession at this point. Among his duties includes the oversight of the expanding Hispanic Ministries. Assisting him in this is the versatile and committed Rev. John Parker, who continues to offer valuable service, even though he is officially retired. I praise God for the marvelous impact of the Hispanic Ministries of this Conference. We must increase our level of involvement in ministries to all ethnic groups within the reach the Lord has given us.

Part of his portfolio of service includes oversight of Archives. Brother Thompson has certainly done an excellent job of organizing and establishing this arena of activity with the assistance of a dedicated committee. In addition to the accomplishments of Archives, Brother Thompson has led the way in formation of the organization and implementation of the vast R. Marshall Stewart Library on this campus. He has worked diligently to make this library a real asset to all of our ministers who wish to come here to study.

Brother Roland Harrell, Conference Stewardship Officer, is certainly giving his all to carry out the duties of the elected secretary/treasurer. He continues to give competent leadership in every area of this particular emphasis. He chairs the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund Committee who serve as advisors to the Conference Board when considering loans and other pertinent matter. He also takes direct oversight of the buildings and grounds of this Conference and ever seeks to employ the services and support of our people. He has led the endeavors of a very difficult renovation program of the campus buildings and continues to do so with a versatility that knows no bounds when it comes to getting the job done, whether speaking on the subject or manually involved in some necessary task.

Rev. David Wheeler was chosen by this Conference to serve as the Church Education Ministries Director in 1998. He and the elected board, along with all the other dedicated CEM personnel, are leading our people to a deeper commitment to the cause of Christian Education. The ministry of CEM covers a wide arena of ministry activities, among which are Bible Quiz, Youth and Teen Talent, Royal Rangers, Falcon Youth Camps and Systematic Bible Study. I praise God for giving this valiant leader to the ministry of this Conference. Among those who work with him is Royal Rangers Conference Commander, Mr. Andre' Davenport. Our hats are off to the tremendous leadership of the Royal Ranger Officers of the work the Lord has given us.

Mr. Ronnie Basden is the newly assigned Director of Men's Ministries. He follows on the heels of Mr. Jack Kelley who served us in the dual role of General Men's Ministries Director and Conference Director for quite some time. Brother Basden and the Men's Ministries Board are doing a tremendous job of revitalizing, reorganizing and using the tremendous foundation laid by Jack Kelley to lead the men of this Conference to be more involved in the work God has given to Men's Ministries of this denomination. I encourage every church and every pastor to maximize this valuable source of manpower and leadership in our churches.

Brother Danny Nelson, Conference Board Member and Pastor of the Culbreth Church, Falcon, has led the activities of WIN for several years, but due to the fact that he has assumed the duties of Disaster Relief Co-ordinator for the Conference, we have released him from his duties as WIN Director. One of our lady ministers, Mrs. Lydia Figuroa, is the vibrant leader of the WIN Ministry. Sister Figuroa has just accepted this position a short while ago and is getting this work reorganized and re-emphasized among our people. "Prayer is the key to heaven, but faith unlocks the door" reverberates through my mind very often. I think I first heard this phrase when I was a student working as pantry boy at Holmes College of the Bible, in Greenville, S. C. If I remember correctly, it was the famed Statesmen Quartet who sang that often as I listened to the radio in my work area. Lydia is re-emphazing the necessity of prayer. I encourage all of our people to join with her to make this the most powerful prayer group that we have yet produced for the glory of God.

Brother Danny Nelson, DRUSA Director, cut his activity eye teeth in this ministry with Hurricane Floyd in September of 1999. The devastating effects of that massive storm system wreaked havoc for most of eastern North Carolina. It was during those early hours in the aftermath of the storm that Brother Danny took up the mantel of this awesome responsibility. He and Brother Jack Kelley did much to alert our General Officials in charge of relief in cases like this to the seriousness of the situation. Through the efforts of DRUSA led in this Conference by this good man of God, our church has now processed some $268,000 to the people of Eastern North Carolina who were adversely affected by this unusual storm system. DRUSA Leader Nelson needs the help of every man and family in this Conference to get this job done.

My wife, Sylvia, continues to lead the Ministers Wives Fellowship. This talented and anointed group of ladies are a powerful force in the ministry the Lord has given us. May the Lord continue to bless our ladies in ministry as they support their spouses and involve themselves in the great work of God through the Ministers Wives Fellowship.

Our Conference Resource Development staff are some of the best people you will ever encounter. They serve diligently with an awareness that they are in ministry. Dolores Reynolds, Joyce Swinson, Kaye Glover, Rose Nelson, Westa Barefoot, Gina Page, Tommy Vaughan and Ruby and Bobby West are the staff that keeps things going from one side of this office building to the other. You will hear more about this, but Mrs. Barefoot is retiring after twenty five years of service in the CEM office of this Conference. We salute and honor her for her many years of dedicated service. Her successor in the CEM office is Gina Page. Gina is of the Baywood Church, of Fayetteville, and will be a tremendous asset to this office staff.

You and I are in this thing together. I need you and you need me as we work together for the Glory of God. Now I give to you the state of the Conference:

Other changes in the ministerial roster are noted on an appendix at the end of the ministerial roster. These changes have occurred since January 1, 2000.

I used to hear our beloved and late Karl Bunkley say, "Plan your work and work your plan". Jesus Christ, our Lord could come back at any moment to catch away His waiting bride. We must thrust our all into His harvest because the hour is late and the laborers are certainly too few. However, if our Lord should tarry his coming it just means we have more opportunity and more time to hasten to reach the lost at any cost. The bottom line of all of our activity and worship is to glorify God our Father, to celebrate His glorious Son and to see that the work of the Church the Lord wants us to do is done!

COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION REPORT
Eighty-Ninth Annual Session of the North Carolina Conference
July 23, 1999

The Apostle Paul in his first pastoral epistle in I Timothy 2:4-7 states the purposes for which God called him into the gospel ministry. He writes in verse 7, "for this I am ordained a preacher". The subject of that statement is elaborated on. The message he is ordained to carry is that "there is only one God, one mediator between God and man, Christ Jesus, and this Christ gave Himself a ransom for all." The central point of the message was to be "God our Saviour, (who)...will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

To this same high and holy calling each credentialed minister of this Conference was chosen by God.

Today we are privileged to honor six ministers, preachers of this marvelous message, who have dedicated their lives and spent their energies declaring this truth. People who have faithfully represented God to the world for a total of 178 years preaching the gospel well over 20,000 times.

WILLIAM J. FOREHAND

Jim Forehand was born April 17, 1934 in Goldsboro NC to Luther and Ella Forehand.

The girl who would later become his wife, Helen Long, was saved in a Revival being conducted by Rev. Mrs. Ada Lee Thurmond at the Oak Street Church in Goldsboro, in 1952. Jim went with her to church and also accepted Christ. Jim and Helen were married about a year later.

In 1954 Jim enlisted in the Coast Guard and upon completing his tour of duty enrolled in Holmes Bible College in 1958. By then Jim was convinced of the call of God upon his life and was dedicated to a sincere and life long commitment of Christian ministry. Jim's Bible College days were punctuated by frequent and successful preaching. Even in those earlier days he was recognized as a powerful voice for God, anointed and eloquent.

When Jim graduated from Holmes he accepted a Conference assignment to pastor at Chadbourn. His eight years there were marked with success with many souls being saved and entire families coming into the church. It was while at Chadbourn that his two daughters Diane and Tracie were born. The Chadbourn church grew from an average of 30-40 to approximately 150.

Rev. Forehand served the Mount Camel Church in Fayetteville from 1968 to1972. Jim built the parsonage at Mount Carmel and succeeded in getting an option on the land that would later become the site of the present church plant. Again Jim's ministry was powerfully blessed and souls were converted on a regular basis.

In 1972 Jim became pastor of the Kinston First Church where he would complete his pastoral ministry serving 21 ½ years before leaving in 1993 to enter full time Evangelistic ministry.

Jim's first quarter report at Kinston recorded an average attendance of about 118. When he left in 1993 the church roster recorded over 800 members.

Since leaving the Pastorate Rev. Forehand has received more calls to preach than he can accept. He is recognized as a successful evangelist and is in great demand for special services such as campmeetings and special conference services.

Jim has been honored several times by his peers by being asked to be Campmeeting and Christian Worker's Institute speaker in the North Carolina Conference.

Rev. Forehand's superannuation by no means marks the end of his ministry. He is already booked through next year and although he plans to slow down it will be difficult to keep this man's gift of ministry out of circulation.

Rev. Forehand served as a Conference Board Member of The North Carolina Conference for 16 years.

Rev. W. J. Forehand, Brother Jim, this Conference honors you today for your 41 years of faithful service.

JIMMY COLE WILLIAMS

Jimmy Cole Williams was born to Paul and Annie Ruth Williams, in Pitt County North Carolina September 17, 1933. He was born-again at age 7 and after a time of waywardness renewed his relationship with Christ forever at age 13.

Rev. Williams met his wife Lorena in 1950. He says they fell in love at first sight, but did not even seriously date each other until she was converted in 1952. They were married October 31, 1952. They have two sons, Timothy Cole and Samuel Wayne.

Jimmy Cole began to preach when he was 15 years old, speaking at that time mostly in prayer meetings. He received his Mission Worker's License in 1951 and became a Licensed minister of the North Carolina Conference in August of 1960. He was Ordained in August of 1964.

Rev. Williams comes from a long line of preachers which he numbers at no less than 10.

Brother Williams began his pastoral ministry serving as an associate pastor at Grimesland in 1960. He has also pastored Black Creek, Hobucken and South Creek, Carson Memorial, Grifton, Winterville, Faith (Greenville District), Rehoboth, Farmville, Hobgood, Meadowbrook, Washington, Moore's Chapel and Mount Olive. He has also served as an Evangelist.

Jimmy Cole was honored to be elected President of the Chaplain Association of the Beaufort County Hospital serving in this capacity in 1984 and 1985. He was the Williamston District Evangelism Treasurer for two terms.

Jimmy Cole and Lorena have moved to their home in Greenville and will continue to serve the Conference and Christ's Kingdom stepping through any and every door the Lord opens for him.

We recognize this faithful preacher's service of 38 years in The North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

GEORGE WILLIAM WEAVER

George William Weaver was born September 5, 1933 in Wayne County NC to Rev. and Mrs. Fred Weaver. He and his wife Gladys were married on June 1st, 1952 and were blessed by three daughters, Peggy, Rebecca and Vickie. They have five grandchildren. Their grandson Brian Rogers is receiving his Minister's License in this Conference Session today.

Rev. Weaver was saved in May of 1954 at the Jones Grove church, Mt. Olive NC. It was at his home church that he began to share his testimony and sensed a call of God upon his life to be a preacher. In the late '50's he began to travel with his father Rev. Fred Weaver and they conducted Revivals together. He received Missions Worker's License in 1960, Minister's License in 1962 and was Ordained in 1974.

Rev. Weaver pastored Grifton, Caraleigh, Graham's Memorial, Moore's Chapel, Hopewell and Thompson Chapel. He considers each pastorate very special and fulfilling.

Bro. William is known for his love for others and his burning desire to follow the will of God in his life. He considers his call to preach as the greatest single direction in his life. He has always trusted God for "all things" and has found that the Lord is true to His promise to provide. His motto verse of scripture which defines his life of faith is Romans 8:28 which states, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose."

George William Weaver this Conference honors you today for your 37 years of tireless faithful service to the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

BETTY DOWDY

Rev. Mrs. Betty Dowdy was credentialed as a Mission Worker in the Eastern Virginia Conference in 1955. She received her Local Minister's License also in Eastern Virginia in 1968, and was Ordained at Falcon in 1981.

Betty is noted as a minister for her compassion and care for others. This aspect of her character likely is a result of almost overwhelming tragedy she has experienced in her life. At the age of 2 she was burned seriously with 1st, 2nd and 3rd degree burns, the home in which she was raised was broken as a result of alcohol and she was forced to live in an unfit foster care situation.

Betty married Donald Dowdy at age 15. At 17 their first child, Donald Ray, Jr. (Donnie) was born with a rare thyroid disease. Both Donnie and Glen their third child died just nine months apart in 1969. Donnie was 17 and Glenn 15 when they died.

It was during her teen age years as a young mother with a sick child that Betty was introduced to Jesus Christ through her insurance agent who witnessed to her and invited her to church. She was saved on the occasion of her very first visit to church. Rev. C. . Gurganus was her first pastor.

From the very beginning of her relationship with the Lord it was apparent that Betty was anointed by God, especially when she would sing in church. She begin to speak in home prayer meetings and testify wherever she had the opportunity. Betty developed a powerful and practical trust in God which continues to influence her ministry today.

Betty completed studies through the Emmanuel College School of Christian Ministries program of Continuing Education.

Donald and Betty have had 49 years of successful marriage and ministry. They have two daughters, Brenda Durbin and Deborah Curran. The girls remember with fondness traveling in Revivals and singing as a family.

Betty pastored the Good Shepherd Church in the Eastern Virginia Conference as well as two Mission works in the Conference. She has pastored Merritts Chapel and Red Springs in the North Carolina Conference. Her first love was and still is Evangelism/Revivalism. She spent 30 years as an Evangelist.

Betty transferred to The North Carolina Conference in 1977 and has served faithfully in this Conference for 22 years.

We express deep gratitude to Rev. Mrs. Betty Dowdy for her selfless service in Christ's Kingdom and her service in this Conference.

RAYMOND E. "GENE" MILLIGAN

Gene Milligan was born in Akron Ohio October 1, 1936. He was saved at the age of 10 during a Decision Day program in Sunday School. He was Baptized with the Holy Spirit and called to preach in 1950. His call into the ministry occurred at Youth Camp.

Gene and his wife Faith have been married 45 years. They have 4 sons, 1 daughter and 11 grandchildren.

Rev. Milligan is a graduate of North Central Bible University. He received a BA from Akron University and did post Graduate work there on an MA in Clinical Psychology.

Gene came to The North Carolina Conference from the Assemblies of God in 1990. He pastored 8 churches while credentialed with the Assemblies of God in Minnesota, Ohio, and North Carolina.

Since 1990 Bro. Milligan has worked with a new church in the Wilmington area and has served various churches and pastors filling in and supplying as needed.

Rev. Milligan resides at Ocean Isle Beach NC.

The North Carolina Conference honors Rev. Raymond E. Milligan for his 9 years of service.

We give special recognition and honor to the spouses of these ministers who have been supportive with their prayers and have shared in any burden, sacrifice, pain or difficulty that accompanied the ministry. They will also joyously reap the rewards of the righteous, for when our Lord says "enter thou into the joys of thy Lord" they will still be beside their mate sharing the ultimate victory and receiving their own crowns of righteousness.

Jesus said in Matthew 9:37,38 "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest."

It is incumbent upon us, the Body of Christ, to assure that future generations have capable, dedicated preachers such as these to continue to lift up the Blood Stained Banner without fear or compromise. We can accomplish this by asking Jesus to search out men and women who will tell the Old, Old Story with conviction and anointing. Men and women who will serve in this Conference with the same degree of faithfulness and sincerity that has dictated the service we recognize and honor today.

Respectfully Submitted:

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT
July 23, 1999

The Apostle Paul announced to the Phillipians "for me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." He also encouraged the Phillipian Church to "press toward the mark of the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" as they waited with eager anticipation for the resurrection of the saints. There are so many friends and loved ones in glory who await our home-going. We pause today to pay tribute to those whom the Heavenly Father has promoted from among our ministerial ranks and the Falcon Camp Meeting Association since last Conference. To God be the glory for all their accomplishments.

TERRY BARTS

Terry was born August 21, 1952. He stepped suddenly into the presence of the Lord on March 2, 1999. He was doing what he loved to do best, playing with and ministering to young people. Those of us who knew him and ministered with him loved him deeply. One could not help but to love that energetic and warm personality. He did not age. He was the perpetual teenager.

Brother Barts pastored the following churches in the N. C. Conference.

1972 - 1974	Johnson Memorial now Midway
1974 - 1976	Jones Grove
1976 - 1981	Benson
1981 - 1983	Goshen
1983 - 1988	Saint Paul, Greenville
1990 - 1999	Youth Pastor of Glad Tidings, Morehead City

While serving Glad Tidings, Terry had a fantastic ministry with the teens and youth. His 180 teen group was known throughout the county.

Terry served the N. C. Conference as Conference Royal Ranger Commander as well as N. C. Conference C. E. Board Member. Terry worked many summers at Falcon Youth Camp. Terry was a very active pastor/counselor to youth all over Carteret County. He was very active bridging Jesus to the community in which he lived and served. He is survived by his wife Beverly Barts, one daughter, Allison Barts Ballou and two sons, Matthew and Michael Barts of Morehead City.

We miss him.

J. EVERETTE EATMON

J. Everette Eatmon was born on November 26, 1928 in Wilson County. On December 14, 1998. his favorite hymn, "I'd Rather Have Jesus" became a reality. He entered into the presence of our risen Lord. He is survived by his wife Grace. He had one daughter, Anita, and three sons, Laverne, Dale, and James.

J. Everette Eatmon preached the Word as an evangelists and pastor in the North Carolina Conference over forty-nine years. He was forever firm in his belief, flowing in his anointing, and proud to be who he was and what he was. He was a delightful man to be around.

He pastored the following churches:

1951 - 1953 Thompson's Chapel
1953 - 1957 Thomas Chapel
1957 - 1958 Red Springs
1958 - 1959 Farmville
1959 - 1961 Thomas Chapel
1961 - 1966 Vanceboro
1966 - 1968 Harker's Island
1968 - 1972 Roper
1974 - 1981 Warrenton (Supply)
1981 - 1986 Alert (Supply)

He officially retired in 1972 but continued to preach the gospel on a regular basis as his health allowed and invitations came. He was used regularly by the Superintendent as a fill-in. One of his biggest thrills of life was preaching at the Falcon Camp Meeting in 1995.

Brother Eatmon was a wise but gentle man who loved God supremely, his family and his church. He loved the world with a deep compassion for lost people.

We will miss him, and we will miss those bow ties.

In addition to these members of the N. C. Conference, we recognize these members of the Falcon Camp Meeting Association.

----Mrs. Christine Thompson - The N. C. Conference Resource Center Annex is named in honor of her husband, the late Belton Thompson.
----Mrs. Ruth Howard - Sister Howard was an active worker in the kingdom and a LOVE Worker in World Missions to Africa.
----Mrs. Pattie Turner - Sister Turner was the faithful wife and companion to Rev. Emmett Turner, Pastor of the Friendship Church, Wilson.
----Mrs. W. K. White (Annie) - Sister White was the faithful and devoted companion of Rev. Kelley White who labored so sacrificially for so many years in the N. C. Conference.
----Mrs. Margaret Acree - Sister Acree was the daughter of one of the Conference patriarchs, Rev. S. A. Fann. She was a faithful organist at the Tarboro First Church.
----Mrs. Sally Taylor - Sister Taylor was a devoted prayer leader and warrior at the Tarboro Church.

These have left us, the church militant, to join the church triumphant. Their speech has been silenced, but their ministries will live on in the lives of their children, the churches they pastored and/or worked in, and the hearts of those touched by their ministries. Many will stand in a day yet to be and call them blessed.

Now will the Conference stand for a moment of silent prayer in their memory.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 1999 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Fifty-fifth Annual Convention on Saturday, June 12, 1999 at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, NC. The convention theme was "Expanding the Vision".

Registration began at 8:30 a.m. in the cafeteria building with Mrs. Patsy Deese as Registrar and the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors assisting. Refreshment were hosted by the Gospel Tabernacle Women's Ministries from Dunn, NC. Musical prelude began at 9:15 a.m. with Mrs. Lynn Case as Pianist. NCWM Director, Mrs. Linda Thomas introduced N C Conference Superintendent T. E. Long. Superintendent Long greeted the congregation and gave the invocation.

NCWM Director, Linda Thomas welcomed everyone to the Convention. We then sang the Women's Ministries Song. After singing, Director Thomas opened the business session by giving her "State of North Carolina Women's Ministries" report.

Linda expressed her appreciation to the Lord for His faithfulness and for bringing her to where she is today. She expressed special thanks to the NCWM Board Members, District Directors, NCWM Historian, Dorothy Boyette, Girl's Ministries Board Members, Ministers Wives Fellowship Director, Sylvia Long, Happy Hearts Director, Blanche Pollard, Couples Retreat Directors, Cathy Ward and Cathy Arthur and Past President's Club Members. Those present were presented with a special gift as a token of appreciation.

Special Guest was Mrs. Beatrice Bolton, Mother of Mrs. Faye Viverette, Rocky Mount District Director who went to be with the Lord on February 19, 1999.

Linda also expressed her appreciation to the NC Conference Superintendent, Board Members and to the RDC personnel. Last but not least, Linda expressed her sincere appreciation to her family and her husband, Joe for all their love, support and encouragement.

The District Directors assisted Linda in presenting plaques and bars to the churches earning awards for the year 1998. Those receiving Certificates of Excellence (100 points) were asked to stand. (Certificates were included in the local director's packets).

The Memoirs Report was given by Mrs. Faye Wheeler.

Ms. Annette Lesh led the congregation in several choruses and gave them an opportunity to stand and stretch before entering into the second part of the Convention.

Director Thomas introduced the program and the theme for this convention, "Expanding the Vision". The program was outlined to explained the on-going ministries of the North Carolina Women's Ministries. We took a few minutes to focus on each area of ministry.

Focus on Education: Board Member Mrs. Phyllis Harrell invited Sarah Lucas a student from Emmanuel College to share a brief testimony of how Emmanuel College has changed her life. Feast of Ingathering Scholarship recipients were Ashley McCandless, Sarah Lucas, Matthew B. Nicholson, James Evan Dunning, Allyson Lamm and Beth Wood.
Focus on Benevolence: Secretary/Treasurer Mrs. Patsy Deese invited Patrick Willis, staff member from Falcon Children's Home to share his testimony. Mrs. Kay Alford and one of the young mothers, "Courtney" spoke about The Royal Home in Salemburg.
Focus on Girl's Ministries: NC Girls' Ministries Director Sandra Britt expressed her appreciation for the support of the new board. She also encouraged leaders to make plans to attend training for the new material which is now ready. The training is scheduled for September 17, 1999 in Goldsboro, NC.

Focus on Mary-Elizabeth Mentor Ministry: Director Mrs. Linda Thomas introduced this new program to the women. Her special guest was Mrs. Susan B. French from the Holly Hill church in Vanceboro, NC. Linda explained how we mentor younger women and how Susan has worked with her over the years. More information about this ministry was included in the packets.
Focus on Happy Hearts Ministry: Mrs. Blanche Pollard expressed her appreciation to those that have made this ministry so successful. Due to the increased numbers, the group has been divided into districts in order for them to meet.
Focus on Couples Retreat Ministry: Mrs. Cathy Arthur and Mrs. Cathy Ward invited couples to join them November 12-14, 1999 in Myrtle Beach, SC for the seventh annual Couples Retreat.
Focus on Ministers' Wives Fellowship: Mrs. Sylvia Long extended an invitation to all ministers wives to participate in this time of fun and fellowship. This ministry was initiated to encourage all ministers wives to support each other.
Focus on Sharing Sisters: Assistant Director, Mrs. Janice Marshburn invited Mrs. Patsy Payne to share ideas from their Sharing Sister meetings. The Sharing Sister program was developed on the local level to encourage Christian fellowship.
Focus on Missions: Board Member Meshelder Richardson invited missionaries Mrs. Edna Parker, Mrs. Betty Rogers and Joe & Maggie Delport to speak. Each missionary expressed their love and appreciation for the support given to missions around the world by the North Carolina Women's Ministries.

The Convention speaker for this meeting was Missionary Rose Boyd. Rose used scriptures from Hab. 2: 2-3 and Col. 1:25-27. She explained how that vision is translated from Hebrew and Greek a HOPE. It was a powerful message that challenged each of us to expand our vision outside the four walls of the local church. God was in our midst during this time of worship.

Janice Marshburn explained Focus on Prayer. She emphasized the "Tuesday House of Prayer" and "Moms in Touch" Program. She then led the congregation in prayer.

The Congregation sang, "Open My Eyes That I May See".

After announcements were made, we dismissed with the W. M. benediction.

The beautiful floral arrangement was provided by the Women's Ministries of the Rocky Mount District in loving memory of Mrs. Faye Downing Viverette.

Respectfully submitted,

Patsy C. Deese, NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
1998-99 REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie:
through it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come...
Habakkuk 2:3

In the continuing quadrennial theme, Women Designed by God for Mission 21, 1999 has been designated the year of vision in the international Pentecostal Holiness Church Women's Ministries. As God continues to open doors of opportunity for ministry, we are challenged to get a VISION of our MISSION.

Since our convention last year, I have traveled across the North Carolina Conference and shared the vision which God has placed in my heart for NCWM. I have encouraged women to see God's vision for their individual lives. God has given each of us talents and abilities (spiritual gifts) to use to bless others.

I have visited with many of you in your local churches since our last convention and have seen the results of your efforts on the local level. That is as one would expect, because charity surely should begin at home. However, the greater blessing comes because you are willing to reach outside your own boundaries as you labor to support our church schools, our missions programs, our children's home, the ATAM Network and various other ministries. In addition to these designated funds through NCWM, many of you serve in your own communities as personal volunteers and with your finances. This is true ministry.

With a new Girls Ministries board in place and a new program resource on the horizon, we have great expectations and much excitement about the future of our ministry to girls. I encourage each local WM to get a vision for this program and organize Girls Ministries in your church. It is a worthwhile investment in the future!

I have so much enjoyed the continued partnership with Janice, Phyllis and Patsy; and Meshelder has certainly been an added blessing and great addition to the team. Each of them are so committed and dedicated to serving God in this capacity. Together we have planned and deployed the programs of NCWM.

It is a real privilege to serve as your director. Yes, it is true that some days I really wonder if I can get it all done. I do sometimes get weary when things seem to go wrong. It is sometimes difficult to meet the needs of the variety of women we serve, and it hurts to be misunderstood. But, when I begin to question, I revisit the vision. If I am to be an effective leader in your behalf, I must see Jesus in the midst of every challenge. The vision is for an appointed time... and in the end, it shall speak!.

Thank you for sharing the vision and working with us to bring it to reality!

In addition to the listed activities, I have planned for and chaired all NCWM Board Meetings. I have spoken for several WM meetings which I attended and all of the WM Days which are listed. I have written articles for and edited the WM Page in The Evangel. I have served in an advisory role on the NC Conference Missions Committee and promoted missions projects within WM. My desk and computer are constantly occupied with NCWM projects and concerns. By means of telephone and periodical mailings to all WM directors, secretary-treasurers and pastors wives, I have communicated the business of NCWM.

Additionally, as a member of the IPHC General Women's Ministries board, I have written articles for each edition of The Helping Hand, participated in board meetings via conference calls, and presided over the Tennessee Valley WM Convention in July, 1998.

All of these activities have made for a most busy year, particularly since they were interwoven with the campaign and election of our son to the NC House of Representatives and our daughter's wedding. Thank you for your loving support and encouragement as I continue to strive to share the vision.

SPECIAL PROJECT:

At the 1999 NCWM Retreat, you contributed over $1,210 toward the purchase of a new computer system for IPHC General WM office in Oklahoma City. This equipment is now in use by Mrs. Linda Riddle, Girls Ministries Director. Thank you for your generosity in this project.

APPRECIATION:

As always, my first words of thanks are to God who has brought me to this place. He has been faithful to keep me and enable me.

NCWM Board Members, JANICE MARSHBURN, PATSY DEESE, PHYLLIS HARRELL

AND MESHELDER RICHARDSON...These ladies are truly dedicated to God, to you and to me. They have been especially helpful this past year in helping with the responsibilities of NCWM even to filling some of my engagements. I so much appreciate their willingness to give above and beyond the call of duty. Whether in a board meeting, at an event, or in the prayer closet, they have your best interest at heart and are working for you. As a board, we share a camaraderie of both responsibility and friendship. They are beautiful women of the faith with a vision of great things for the Lord.

NCWM District Directors, JACKIE JONES, PATSY PAYNE, JUSTINE LEE, GAIL GOFF, JENNY FAIRCLOTH, CHARLENE STRONG, WANDA TOLER, KAREN BARNHILL, MARJORIE TEACHEY, JACKIE THOMPSON and TERESA NELSON...These are the ladies on the home front who have served within their respective districts. They plan and host rallies, prepare newsletters, make phone calls, and whatever else is necessary to promote WM in their districts. You also see these ladies at conference functions as they register you for events. Many times some of them can be found helping us in the background as we make preparation. I, along with the NCWM Board, really appreciate their contribution.

Also, we could not forget to mention FAYE VIVERETTE who served so faithfully until February when the Lord called her home. We really miss Faye, but rejoice that she is in the presence of the Lord.

NCWM Historian, DOROTHY BOYETTE...How much we enjoy reminiscing as we look through pictures and the scrapbook of memories made through the years of North Carolina Women's Auxiliary and Women's Ministries activities. Dorothy does a great job in her assignment, and we appreciate her keeping this record. In years to come should Jesus tarry, her records will bring fond remembrances to those who follow us. Thank you, Dorothy, my long-time friend.

NC Girls Ministries Board Members, SANDRA BRITT, DEBBIE HAWLEY, DEBBIE HAMILTON and DIANNE BUNN...This is a new team of leadership for our Girls Ministries. They are enthusiastic and excited about the future of this program. We look forward to new and exciting things happening as this board takes the leadership role.

Ministers Wives Fellowship Director, SYLVIA LONG, along with her committee, has done an excellent job of providing opportunities of training and fellowship for the ministers' wives. Every minister's wife needs to be a part of the activities offered. I thank Sylvia for her leadership in this area.

Happy Hearts Director, BLANCHE POLLARD, has done an excellent job with this ministry for our senior ladies. She has been with this ministry since its inception in 1994. The attendance and enthusiasm continues to grow. The Happy Hearts make Christmas stockings for the Red Hook mission in Brooklyn, NY, each year. This year they are planning a bus trip to deliver the stockings and also to visit the Pennsylvania Amish Country. Thank you, Blanche, for continuing to promote this much enjoyed ministry.

Couples Retreat Directors, CATHY WARD AND CATHY ARTHUR, along with their husbands, never cease to amaze us with the fabulous couples retreats, Last years retreat featured dinner on a river-cruise out of the Wilmington port. Rev. Larry Queen presented a great seminar. The attendance continues to grow. The 1999 Couples Retreat is scheduled for November 12-14 in Myrtle Beach, SC. Thank you, Cathy and Cathy, for arranging these annual marriage enrichment retreats.

Past Presidents' Club, chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT, consist of all former NCWM Presidents and includes, along with Dollie, CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT and MARY BELLE JOHNSON. These ladies are such a blessing to me as they continue to attend and support the NCWM events and programs.

NC Conference Superintendent and Board Members... Rev. T. E. Long, our conference superintendent, and conference board members are most supportive of NCWM. They value and appreciate the contribution our women make to the overall church program. We appreciate their continued blessings.

NC Conference RDC Personnel...To ROSE, DOLORES, LISA KAYE AND WESTA, thanks for assistance whenever I call. They always make me feel welcome and lend a helping hand when needed.

My Church...in fulfilling the obligations of NCWM Director, I have had to be away from Holly Hill quite a bit. I really do appreciate the love and support of my home church. I know they hold me up in prayer. I appreciate them understanding my ministry and excusing me when it is necessary.

My Family...Last, but certainly not least, I could never serve in this place were it not for the patience, love and understanding of my husband, JOE. Most of you have met him as he has chauffeured me around. I guess he is the sacrificial lamb in that this job demands a lot of weekend and night time. I truly appreciate his willingness to not only encourage me, but also to share with me in this ministry.

Convention Participants...A special thanks to everyone who contributes to the program, and thanks to each delegate and guest for being a participant in this convention.

As I have prepared this report, I have been reminded of all that God has done through small groups of women in churches in the North Carolina Conference. I never cease to be amazed at what you produce. As you review this STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN"S MINISTRIES, I believe you can be pleased with your accomplishments.

I urge you to continue to improve your ministries. Invite new people into your fellowship.

Communicate the purposes and goals of Women's Ministries. Work toward the mission...and above all KEEP THE VISION!!

Linda Morris Thomas, NCWM Director

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

What an honor and a blessing to remember those saints who have gone on before us. God gave them to us for a precious span of time, then called them home to rejoice in His presence.

Old Times, Old Friends

Old times, old friends, how dear are these
To treasure now in memories
Whatever marked each passing day
Has left its imprint on life's way.

The joyous years that swiftly passed,
In blessed remembrance still will last.
The ones we loved, no longer here,
In memory's chambers still are near.

How true that precious joys live yet,
That there are things we can's forget.
Old times, old friends, how dear are these
To treasure now in memories

Agnes Davenport Bond

1 Corinthians 15:54 reminds us that"...When this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: 'Death is swallowed up in victory." Let us pause now and remember the following saints who are now reigning with our Lord in victory:

IN LOVING MEMORY
Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.
Psalm 116:15

We cherish and honor the memory of the following NCWM members who departed this life during 1998.
